

Siblings choose cosy cafes over relative rivalry

Leaving behind the teenage spats over stealing each other's clothes, siblings are making Sydney the capital of brotherly and sisterly food love. Twins Benny and James Sweeten have swung open the doors of Two Brothers at 55 Lavender Street, Lavender Bay, while sisters Gina, Aileen and Vicky Young are the big story among caffeine devotees this month. Just five months after they opened Velluto Nero on Clarence Street in the city, the sisters' coffee nabbed the Champion Espresso and Gold Medal at the Sydney Royal Coffee Competition. "In the 10-year history of the coffee competition, only a handful of gold medals have been awarded, let alone championship status," a competition spokeswoman says.
