the power of three

Yes, they've amassed an unprecedented tally of coffee accolades in less than a year. Yes, it's worth changing your CBD route to pick up a cup of Velluto Nero signature blend coffee.

Despite corporate backgrounds, owners and sisters Aileen, Vicky and Gina Young have quickly appeased Sydney's caffeine casuals and elite. Their secret, we're told, is that they won't launch a blend until all three of their palettes agree.

Just quietly, we think it's something else that'll keep you on a repeat business reel. And it comes in the form of their triple-choc brownie. This is no ordinary brownie; lovingly made, generously sized white and milk chocolate chunks throughout, resting on a dark chocolate base brownie. Triple the wickedness and a treat for bribes, bruised heart mending and making Mondays tolerable.

But hey, each to their own. Go there for the coffee if you please.
